JAPANiCAN.com Announces A Special Tour Making Driving Through Japan Easy!

Take a leisurely drive through Hokkaido

TOKYO, Japan August 29th, 2008

JAPANiCAN.com has announced a limited availability driving tour package for visitors to Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost island. The tour includes lodging, car rental, and a special pass that allows unlimited use of Hokkaido's expressway system, giving English speaking travelers a chance to experience the breathtaking scenery of Hokkaido at their own pace. JAPANiCAN.com is blazing a trail by creating this special offer available only to visitors to Japan!

Travelers can choose from two packages designed to provide everything necessary for driving in Japan. Five day courses are available until 28 October 2008, and seven day courses are available until 25 October 2008. Both courses include car rental, hotel, mobile phone rental, and expressway pass. As a part of the special promotion, rental cars are available with English voiced navigation systems, and maps are available written in English or Chinese, making it possible to explore Hokkaido without knowing Japanese! Prices start at JPY 83,700 per person for the five day tour. JAPANiCAN.com has allowed them to sell a special Electronic Tollway Collection (ETC) card for JPY 7,000 per group, making driving on Hokkaido's expressway even more convenient by avoiding toll lines. The five day tour includes lodging in Sapporo, Noboribetsu, and Asahikawa, and the freedom to experience the relaxing hot springs and snow capped mountain peaks Hokkaido is famous for.

JAPANiCAN.com believes this tour is a great way to see Hokkaido with all of the speed, comfort, and convenience of traveling by car. Mobile phone rental, English voiced navigation, and telephone interpretation services all give travelers peace of mind and courage to break away from the standard guided tour.
