JAPANiCAN WELCOMES VISITORS DURING YOKOSO! JAPAN WEEKS

JTB Group Company to Cut 5% from Popular Sunrise Tours

TOKYO, JAPAN – From now through February, to coincide with Yokoso! Japan Weeks 2009, JTB Group company JAPANiCAN Inc. will discount its most popular Sunrise Tours to destinations across Japan. Yokoso! Japan Weeks, as a part of the Japanese government's campaign to increase the number of foreign tourists entering Japan to 10 million by the year 2010, is a special nationwide promotion that promises to offer travelers a variety of perks and discounts. JAPANiCAN Inc. has joined the promotion by lowering prices for its most popular Sunrise Tours by 5%.

With over 6 million visitors during its 40-year history, the JTB Group's Sunrise Tours brand has long been the premiere way for tourists to experience Japan. During JAPANiCAN's Yokoso! Japan Weeks promotion, popular Sunrise Tours to destinations like Mt. Fuji and Hakone will become even more accessible, lowered to JPY 12,350 per person after the promotional discount. Other popular discounted tours include day trips to the World Heritage Site Nikko Toshogu Shrine (JPY 13,300) and sushi-making classes at Tsukiji's fish market (JPY 13,775). Best of all, many of JAPANiCAN's Shinkansen Tours are also included in the discount offer. The budget travel packages including bullet train fare and lodging receive the same 5% discount on top of their already heavily discounted prices! During the promotion, shinkansen tickets from Tokyo to Kyoto and lodging in Kyoto can be had for as little as JPY 18,525 per person.

JAPANiCAN's promotion is valid on selected tours with departures until 28 February 2009. To view the full lineup of discounted tours, visit JAPANiCAN's campaign page at <http://www.japanican.com/tours/FToursKensakuKeikaTema.aspx?TourActivityNo=38>.
